Words of Wisdom in the Proverbs

God is able to keep our hearts and our minds safe in Him! Read this truth below and let it sink down into your heart about how safe you are in Him! Proverbs 18:10 6	Are you known to others as someone who is trustworthy in what you say and do? God desires that we never say things to hurt other people's feelings, but rather build them up and encourage them. Proverbs 11:13 & 12:18 7	When you honor and revere God with your whole heart, you'll be able to learn wisdom from His Word like never before—and He wants to give that to you! Ask God to help you honor Him more today. Proverbs 9:10 8	If you know Jesus as your Lord and Savior, you have a hope that you can rejoice in! Thank Jesus today for that hope He's given you and pray for those who may not have that same hope. Proverbs 10:28 9	God desires for us to be a cheerful giver! In fact, being generous is a trait that God has and that we can have too! Coins for Kids is a great way to give to missionaries who reach people for Jesus. Is there something you can give today? Proverbs 11:24 10

Words of Wisdom in the Proverbs

When you never have anything to hide before God, the Bible says that you "walk securely." Isn't that a great thought? God wants you to walk securely in Him by being honest before Him! Proverbs 10:9 13	Have you ever felt sad and then someone encouraged you, and you felt all better? Is there someone you can encourage today? Proverbs 12:25 14	When you forgive someone, it not only blesses the person you forgive but it blesses you! Is there someone you need to forgive today? Proverbs 17:9 15	God desires that we express our love and care for other people so that others can see Him in us! What can you do for someone today? Maybe write a card for your mom or do a chore without being asked? Do good to someone today! Proverbs 3:27 16	Do you have good memories of a person in your life? We all do! When you live for Christ, the memories other people have of you will be a blessing to them. Think about some good memories today! Proverbs 10:7 17

Words of Wisdom in the Proverbs

When your mom or dad disciplines you when you do something wrong, it means they love you! Thank Jesus today for people who care about you! Proverbs 10:17 20	Have you ever had honey before? It's so sweet! Do you know that the Bible says that kind words are like honey? Speak those kind words to people and spread the sweetness to those around you! Proverbs 16:24 21	Do you know that since you know Jesus, you don't ever have to be afraid of what's going to happen in the future? Read these verses below and think about the hope Jesus gives you. Proverbs 31:25 22	Loving the Lord is what makes you beautiful—not your hair, makeup, or anything else! Reflect on the verses below and think about that truth. Proverbs 31:30 23	When someone corrects you when you do something wrong, that correction can be used to make you even stronger in your relationship with God! Thank God for people in your life who love you and correct you out of love! Proverbs 17:10 24

Words of Wisdom in the Proverbs

Have you ever been told, "If you can't say anything nice, don't say anything at all"? Do you know the Bible agrees with that statement? Read the passage below and think about the power of your words. Proverbs 21:23 27	It feels so good to be loved by a godly friend, and it also feels good to encourage a friend! Is there someone you can encourage today? Proverbs 27:9 28	Do you have a sister or a friend that you love? The Bible says to love the wisdom of God like we love a family member you're close to! Do you love God's wisdom like that? Proverbs 7:4 29	Being worried can steal so much joy from people, but do you know that you can make people feel better by just speaking a kind word to others? Proverbs 12:25 30	God can help you to be at peace with everyone in your life. Read this Scripture below and ask that God would continually bring peace in your relationships with your family and friends. Proverbs 16:10 31
