

ELEMENTARY GIRL DAYBOOK

May

monday

tuesday

wednesday

thursday

friday

		Do your friends look up to you? Be someone they can always count on, especially when it comes to doing the right thing. Proverbs 27:17 1	Is having a lot of things important to you? If so, you may want to check your heart and see if it's in the right place. Matthew 6:20-21 2	Is there someone in your life you feel is a godly example? Learn from them! Proverbs 1:5 3
--	--	--	---	--

Week 1: Your Legacy

The Bible tells us to obey our leaders. Who are the leaders in your life? Honor them today by listening and doing what they ask. Hebrews 13:17 6	Be sure to always honor your parents. They are the ones who love, care, and protect you. Tell your parents just how much they mean to you. Exodus 20:12 7	You may not like your teacher this year but the Bible tells us we must still honor them. How can you honor your teacher today? Romans 13:31 8	Jesus wants us to honor everyone. That means showing love and kindness to everyone you meet. 1 Peter 2:17 9	When the person in charge is older than you, be sure to show them respect. 1 Timothy 5:17 10
--	---	---	---	--

Week 2: Honoring Leadership

The Bible tells us to share the love of Jesus everywhere we go. You have a chance to tell your friends about Jesus. What are you waiting for? Mark 16:15 13	Let others see Jesus in you by your words and actions. Set a good example so others will want to know Jesus the way you do. Matthew 5:16 14	Are you hesitant to share Jesus with your friends? The Holy Spirit will empower you with the words to say. Just ask! Acts 1:8 15	Do not be ashamed to tell your friends what the Lord has done in your life. Let your story be a witness to them. 2 Timothy 1:8-12 16	Take a few minutes to pray for a friend who does not know Jesus. Pray that they would be open to learning about Him. Matthew 9:38 17
---	---	--	--	--

Week 3: Sharing Jesus with Your Friends

There are only a few weeks left of school so it's important to be focused. Ask Jesus to help you keep your eyes on him and finish strong. Proverbs 4:25 20	With only a few weeks left, this is a great time to show appreciation for your teachers. Think of ways you can show your gratitude and respect. 1 Peter 2:17 21	Your friends seem to be tired and ready to be out of classes. Take some time to make these final days positive. Proverbs 17:22 22	All year long you have had the same routine during lunch. Try something new today! Sit with someone else, eat a new food, or chat with the food workers. Isaiah 43:19 23	You have some regrets this year because of things you said to a friend. It's not too late to make things right! John 15:12 24
--	---	---	--	---

Week 4: Final Days of School

It's the last week of school and you are not sure what to do. Meet someone new before the year is over! 1 Thess. 3:12 27	Summer is just around the corner. What do you have planned? Make a list of what you would like to accomplish over summer break. Philippians 4:13 28	School is out and you have time to do extra things. Who is someone you can show love to this summer? Who needs you to help them? Psalms 140:12 29	It's summer! Now what? If you could choose the perfect summer, what would you choose to do? Jeremiah 29:11 30	How would you like to be remembered? Be the kind of person who others notice because of your kind heart. Philippians 4:8 31
--	---	---	---	---

Week 5: Summer Plans