

Bloom

when little becomes much

Annual Theme Booklet

September 2017-August 2018

Dear Ladies,

The growth and development of our girls is challenged from every direction. It is important that they have help and guidance as they navigate through life. Girls need to have solid truth to help them thrive and grow to become godly women.

A Note from NGM

The 2017–18 annual theme for National Girls Ministries is Bloom, when little becomes much, based on Matthew 13:32. There are amazing mentors who plant God's seeds of love in the lives of girls in their world. Just like fertile soil, the girls are ready and waiting to receive, grow, and bloom for Jesus.

This year's focus is designed to take girls, along with mentors, on a journey to cultivate and nurture growth in God. This booklet includes resources and ideas to support you. Here are just a few of the items included in this booklet:

- Devotional Outlines and NEW Girl's Discussion Guides (for elementary and teen girls)
- Introducing the NEW Girls Ministries Spirit Week (with fun things to do all week!)
- Ideas for using the theme throughout the year
- And much more!

God has amazing plans for the girls in our nation and around the world. Let's make an impact this year. When we work together toward a common goal, the possibilities are practically limitless!

With love,
Mandy Groot, National Girls Ministries Director

There are few things more exciting than the start of something new. Think about a flower garden. A flower garden in full bloom is a beautiful and peaceful sight. But the flower garden doesn't just happen by throwing seeds around and seeing what happens.

Every girl was born to bloom into the beautiful creation she was designed to be. God has taken the time to create her, and He sends the Holy Spirit and other people to help nurture her.

Matthew 13:32 says, "Though it is the smallest of all seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds come and perch in its branches." We are committed to helping girls see their potential and flourishing in God's kingdom.

sow nurture bloom

for Elementary Girls

"Why is everyone always mad at me?" thought nine-year-old Isabella. "Everywhere I go, people get upset with me." Although it was a bold statement that wasn't true all the time, it was true much of the time for Isabella. It wasn't that she did something major that caused others to be angry with her; it was that she would do little things that bothered others. Those "little things" seemed to go a long way to cause negative consequences.

At home, Isabella struggled to stop interrupting her mom when there was a phone call or text conversation going on. Because of her rude behavior, she wasn't allowed to watch movies or TV for a week. Her teacher sent a note home from school stating that Isabella was given extra homework because she was getting up and down in class without permission and had missed assignments. When she was at a birthday party with her friends, Isabella felt jealous of all the nice gifts her friend received so she went and pouted in another room. Two girls came in and called her a "selfish baby" then started laughing.

Even on her basketball team Isabella had trouble. Her coach said she had to run more laps because she had purposely shoved a girl down in anger during warm ups. It seemed everywhere she went there were big issues that came from little things she was doing.

But one day, Isabella heard a message at church about little things making a big difference. The lesson was about God taking something small and turning it into something big. She was more interested in this message than ever before. She knew that in the past her little actions always went a long way to get her into trouble and heartache. But, this seemed different.

The leader kept joyfully repeating a tiny phrase all through the lesson, "A little every day goes a long, long way!" She taught that in Matthew 13:32 Jesus explained to a crowd of people how a tiny mustard seed grew into a massive garden plant.

God always takes your small acts of obedience and turns them into His big plan.

God's ways, He would turn them into big blessings!

"That's it!" Isabella thought with excitement. "I want a little every day to go a long, long way with me too! But I want it to be used for God, not for my own ways." For the first time in months, Isabella could see how her own little actions were causing big frustrations with others. Now she wanted to start doing little things that would cause big blessings.

The church leader continued by showing the class a garden picture. She explained that when a seed is planted in a garden and nurtured, the plant will bloom. She went on to compare how that could apply to the girls' lives as well. The leader shared, "When you plant God's seeds in your everyday choices, a little every day goes a long, long way. The beginning may seem small and meaningless, but when life-seeds are sown and nurtured they eventually bloom! God always takes your small acts of obedience and turns them into His big plan. There is nothing too little that He can't develop or use. Little becomes much when you give Him every part of your life."

And that was the day Isabella prayed a simple prayer that changed her life. When she went to bed that night, she wholeheartedly prayed, "God, I am sorry. Please forgive me for following my own ways. I give You my life with all the little things in it, so You can use my life for Your big plans. Help me to nurture the seeds You plant so I can bloom." By the time she woke up, Isabella was ready for a new start. She said to herself as she began a new journey, "Today I am going to sow God's seeds in what I do and see what He does! A little every day goes a long, long way!"

Discussion

(Give every girl a discussion guide.)

1. Can you relate to how Isabella felt? Why or why not?
2. How can "A little every day goes a long, long way" be a negative thing? How can it be used for good?
3. What type of seeds (or actions) does God want you to sow in your daily life? What type of blossoms (or blessings) come from those seeds?
4. How can you nurture your relationship with God?

Action Steps

Write down one little thing you can do to follow God's ways that would create big blessings if you did it every day. Write the Matthew 13:32 reference down on the paper as well. Keep the paper somewhere close at home or school so you can remind yourself of it. Then watch God turn little into much!

"A little every day goes a long, long way. A little every day goes a long, long way. A little every day goes a long, long way" was a cliché Kelly would hear over and over at home as she was growing up. Although hearing it sometimes annoyed her, now that she was a teenager she was thankful she had listened to those words of advice. It seemed that every aspect of Kelly's life had been influenced by that one phrase. "A little every day goes a long, long way" would come to Kelly's mind at the most random but necessary times. It was as if that one life-insight affected everything.

When it came time to hang up her clothes or put away her school items after a long day, Kelly knew that "a little every day goes a long, long way" would keep her room clean and functional.

For health decisions, choosing wisely to exercise was affected by "a little every day goes a long, long way." She enjoyed feeling good and looking her best because she made the right decisions daily to work out.

In her friendships, being kind and showing love over and over no matter what her friends were facing allowed for deep and meaningful connections to be made.

In school classes, preparing for tests wasn't stressful if Kelly worked on her reading and memorization a little every day. Studying regularly in small increments of time added up to big rewards with her grades. That tiny phrase “a little every day goes a long, long way” proved to be true in several areas of her life.

In Matthew 13:32, Jesus talked about this principle that applies to everyone's life. He explained to a crowd how a tiny mustard seed grows into a massive garden plant. “Though it is the smallest of all seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds come and perch in its branches.” He gave this analogy to describe how the kingdom of God works. The Early Church started out small, but as people shared the gospel a little every day the church grew. The kingdom of God was planted and nurtured by God's people, and over time, it flourished!

The small seeds she had sown into her walk with Him were being nurtured and she was blossoming!

When you plant God's seeds, a little every day goes a long, long way. The beginning may seem small and meaningless but when life-seeds are sown and nurtured, they will eventually bloom! God always takes your small acts of obedience and turns them into His big plan. There is nothing too little that He can't develop or use. Little becomes much when you give Him every part of your life.

In Kelly's relationship with God, a little every day went a long, long way as well. As she took time daily to turn her heart to the Lord, she was developing into a godly young woman. Whether it was starting her day with a worship song, praying for the fruit of the Spirit as she interacted with others, being led of the Spirit in daily decisions, or reading her Bible before bed to grow in wisdom, she was doing little things over and over to build her relationship with God.

The small seeds she had sown into her walk with Him were being nurtured and she was blossoming! Little had become much as she had grown from a little girl who was just learning about God into a flourishing teenager. Her consistent, faithful actions helped her to develop a deep, solid lifestyle of faith. The future is bright for Kelly as she continues to do a little every day in God's work of sowing, nurturing, and blooming!

Discussion

(Give every girl a discussion guide.)

1. What are some basic things in life that seem small but have huge results when done over time?
2. What are some challenges of doing a little every day?
3. What is the difference in sowing selfish seeds vs. sowing God's seeds? How does God respond to seeds sown in His work?
4. When has there been a time you wish you had done a “little every day” but you didn't and the results showed it?

Action Steps

Write down one area in your life that you desire to see grow with God's help. Then, list three steps to sow and nurture that desire. Last, write down what your biggest challenge will be and how you will intentionally decide to overcome it.

Ways to Use the Annual Theme

Celebration

Use “Bloom, when little becomes much” as a theme during your annual Celebration Service. Have girls share the importance of growth and the steps it takes to bloom. Have girls share their personal story of how sowing and nurturing led to blooming for Jesus. There are many ideas for decorations found online.

Girls Night or Retreat

Plan a special evening or overnight event to share thoughts from the theme. New Devotional Journals—one for elementary and one for teen girls—are available. Give each girl a Devotional Journal as a takeaway from the retreat. Set up a craft table and have the girls make the sunflower craft or flower pen from the National Event Planning Guide. Girls can make a keepsake that contains all or part of the verse for Bloom, when little becomes much.

Leader Group or Event

The quality of a good leader is someone who continues to grow. A leader who continues the same will see the same results each year, but a leader who is sowing and nurturing will begin to see new results. A great gift to give leaders is the Bloom 3-Bar Necklace. It can be a reminder of the theme and the actions they should be doing daily – sow, nurture, bloom. Decorate with lots of flowers for a “Bloom, when little becomes much” look. Set up stations for girls and leaders to mentor and exhibit the meaning of what it means to bloom and become much.

Visit “National Girls Ministries” on Pinterest to find ways you can bring the annual theme to life! Pinterest.com/NatGirlsMin/bloom

Women and Girls Luncheon

Plan a Tea Party event for women and girls. As a service project, disadvantaged women and girls in the community could be included to show God's love for others, and help sow seeds in the lives of those who don't yet have a relationship with God.

Planning Timeline

Girls Ministries Week is the second week in September, 10-16, and is the official kickoff of the Annual Theme for the 2017-2018 school year. This year's theme is Bloom, when little becomes much. This is a designated opportunity to increase awareness, visibility, understanding, and enthusiasm for Girls Ministries in your church and community. This may be a good week to have a special event, a girls' night out, or girls outreach. Here are some ideas to help you get started.

2 months before

- Check with your pastor about placing a National Girls Ministries Week service on the calendar, the possibility of presenting Girls Ministries during a service or a directed Girls Ministries prayer time.

- Another option if you are unable to have a service is to see if you can set up a booth outside the sanctuary promoting Girls Ministries and discipleship to girls. (Remember, Girls Ministries promotional resources are available in the catalog.)
- Ask to show the new promo video.

1 month before

- With your pastor's approval, arrange for a speaker for your National Girls Ministries Week service.

- Provide the theme verse, Matthew 13:32, to the speaker as a suggested topic or the Girls Ministries new promotional video (available in English and Spanish).

2 weeks before

- Pray with your girls and sponsors concerning the National Girls Ministries Week service and offering.
- Display the National Girls Ministries Week Poster.
 - Have girls decorate offering containers to be used to receive the National Girls Ministries Week offering.
 - Select girls to be greeters and ushers.
 - Print the order of service or other pertinent National Girls Ministries Week information for your church bulletin. Basic information about NGM Week is found on page 11.

- Hand out the flyer for girls and leaders to participate in Girls Ministries Spirit Week. (See the Girls Ministries Spirit Week flyer found on ngm.org under events).

Before the service

- Girls can serve as greeters, distributing a printed program listing all of the service participants along with their club level and perhaps a short bio.

Special presentation suggestions

- Girls can purchase and download the new song "Shine" and have them come up with a human video or motions to perform on stage. The song can be found at s1.ag.org/shinesong
- If you want to tie in the Sleepover theme and Coins for Kids (CFK) project, a video and reproducible handouts about the current project,

Caring for Baneasa, are available at <http://ngmevents.ag.org/cfk/current.cfm> as a free download.

- Allow each club (or just one club) to sing its club theme song. Theme Songs CD (item 28MY5084), recorded in English and Spanish, is available from *My Healthy Church.

Idea for Raising Financial Support

- Let girls receive the National Girls Ministries Week offering. Consider asking the congregation to walk to the front and place their offering in the containers the girls have prepared.

After NGM Week

- Mail the National Girls Ministries Week form (page 19) along with your offering (in the envelope provided in your Theme/Event packet) to the national Girls Ministries Department, 1445 N. Boonville Ave., Springfield, MO 65802. To submit your offerings online, go to: <http://ngmevents.ag.org/nmw/>.
- Send an e-mail with comments, suggestions, testimonies, and pictures service to ngm@ag.org with National Girls Ministries Week in the subject line or post on social media using #NGMWeek.

Resources in italics can be found at ngm.org and on the 2017 DVD.

Spirit Week

national  girls
ministries

The Nationwide Girls Ministries Event, Sunshine Garden Party, will help girls discover how important it is to be connected with Jesus.

In John 15:5, Jesus said, "I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing." Growing in God is a process—much like planting a seed and helping it to bloom. We pray that God's blessing shine on your Sunshine Garden Party as you help girls gain a deeper knowledge of Christ's love.

As always, a segment of our Nationwide Event will include giving to a special Coins for Kids missions project, Caring for Baneasa. Through our project, we are raising money so a new center in Romania can provide hot meals, school supplies, health classes, and even a greenhouse to grow veggies, all while sharing and showing Christ's love. We are bringing back the call-in this year! This will happen on Friday, September 22, 2017. The Webcast will feature fun videos, crafts, activities, and up-to-date totals for Coins for Kids giving.

her heart ... her world ... His purpose

Will she know what to say? How can I talk to her? Will she make the right choices? How can I teach her about absolute truth? Will she choose good friends? Does she fully understand her faith? Can I do more? How can I mentor her?

The national Girls Ministries Department guides the overall vision and direction of Girls Ministries. Our mission statement is threefold:

1. To provide effective discipleship tools and support to districts and local churches
2. To enable leaders to accomplish the fivefold purpose through women mentoring girls
3. To believe God for a harvest of girls—fulfilling His perfect plan for their lives

The annual National Girls Ministries Week offering, collected during local National Girls Ministries Week services, assists the national department in fulfilling this mission statement. The national Girls Ministries staff provides field ministry, develops new materials and products, provides training and leadership materials, processes training certificates, and processes orders for materials and offerings for national projects.

The annual offering taken during National Girls Ministries Week in the local churches is a means of support for the national department. Your generosity helps cover administrative costs and enables us to continue to provide quality materials and services to more than 200,000 girls and sponsors involved in the Girls Ministries program. The national Girls Ministries Department thanks each one who participates in this offering, and we pledge ourselves to be faithful to our mission of enabling leaders to disciple girls.

CARING FOR Baneasa

COINS FOR KIDS 2017

Imagine if you were all alone, with no home and no family to take care of you. Kids your age in Baneasa have had no place to go . . . until now. With Coins for Kids, we can help missionaries build a center where every kid has someone who cares about them.

Through our project Caring for Baneasa, we're raising money so a new center can provide hot meals, school supplies, health classes, and even a greenhouse to grow veggies. With just your spare change, you can help kids just like you learn to read, grow strong, and have a chance to play on a playground for the first time in their lives!

When you give to Coins for Kids, you're helping to bless other kids with a place where they can feel safe and cared for. If we all work together, we can make sure the kids of Baneasa never feel alone again!
