

World Missions

Merit Requirements

1. Read a biographical book about a world missionary.
2. Explain to your sponsor the biblical basis for world missions as printed in Pentecostal Evangel, September 3, 2000.
3. Participate in the financial support of world missions by giving to or raising funds for a recognized missionary or missions program (such as Speed-the-Light, Light-for-the-Lost, Boys and Girls Missionary Challenge, Latin America Child Care, etc.).
4. Correspond (email or mail) with world missionary families from at least five different countries.
5. Write a 500-word report on one nation that includes the following information:
 - a. A brief history of the country
 - b. The major religions
 - c. The type of government
 - d. The population (its ethnic diversity)
 - e. The geography
 - f. Missions involvement
6. Explain in detail the process of becoming a missionary (being called of God, applying, being appointed, attending language school, itinerating, etc.). This information may be obtained by contacting your national department of world missions.
7. Actively participate in a missions trip — other than an AIM (youth missions program) or MAPS (US or world missions) trip — of at least 1 week in another country with a recognized missionary within your denomination. (You must be at least 15 years old and be accompanied by a parent or guardian.) Write a 500-word report on your trip.
8. Give three Scripture references concerning world missions.
