June Celebrations:

School Reflections

1. Is there someone you had a disagreement with that needs to hear from you?
   - Matthew 5:23-24

2. Take time to make it right before summer begins!
   - Exodus 20:8-10

3. Do you find you have lots of free time after school?
   - Ecclesiastes 3:1

4. Because Emily is an over-achiever, summer is a time for her to get ahead on her life goals. But first, she needs to take a break from her schedule. Rest is important too!
   - Proverbs 25:28

5. Even though life isn’t super busy, Heath felt like he was always tired. He realized that he was spending a ton of time on his phone, which left him feeling drained.
   - Luke 10:23

6. If you ever feel guilty when you aren’t making progress, think again. Taking time to restore your body is progress! Rest when you need it. It will move you forward.
   - Genesis 2:2-3

7. Tasha had the habit of staying up until midnight or beyond and then sleeping in until noon on summer days. That can be fun every now and then but not as a life pattern.
   - Ephesians 5:15

8. Candice was weary of all the noises in her life. Siblings, music, movies, and text messages all meshed into a massive mound in her mind. She decided to unplug!
   - Mark 6:31

9. Learning is not just limited to school, but is truly a lifestyle! Choose to learn new things even during the summer. Find a course or class that you’d enjoy and go for it!
   - Colossians 3:10

10. Do you remember looking up to an older girl when you were young?
    - Proverbs 27:17

11. Kenzie thrived on hanging out with her friends during the school year. Now that it’s summer, she feels lost because they all have their own activities. Now what?
    - Phillipians 2:4

12. Tate was hesitant to volunteer for leading at kids camp. But afterwards, she realized that she LOVED leading and hanging out with kids! Tate was glad she stepped out.
    - Matthew 5:16

13. Does your summer schedule build or restrain progress in your walk with Jesus? This is the perfect time to reevaluate your priorities.
    - 1 Corinthians 10:31

14. Julie knew that during her busy school year she had often neglected her Bible and youth group. Now, she wonders if God will forgive her and offer her a second chance.
    - Romans 3:23-24

15. Kara had some extra time so she decided to get out of the house and go make a difference in her world. She babysat for free just to be a blessing to her pastors!
    - 1 Thess. 5:12, 13

16. Annie was too afraid to go to youth camp but she took a big step of faith and signed up anyway. Now she is trusting that God will give her peace and joy the whole week.
    - 1 Peter 5:7

17. Taylor’s summer was set. Both her parents would be working so she would go to summer school then babysit her siblings. But she made the choice to enjoy it!
    - James 1:17

18. Looking for fun? Gather a few younger girls and have a Bible Study! Pick a theme, have the girls bring snacks, start with a game, and lead them closer to Jesus.
    - Luke 6:31

19. Tia wanted to have some fun this summer. Sadly, she chose to join in on social media that wasn’t God-honoring. It didn’t take long to realize it stole her peace and joy.
    - Romans 6:23

20. Ever since Bailey became a teen, she spent more time with her friends than with her parents. She decided to plan some family nights! She spent time having fun with them.
    - Ephesians 6:2

21. The most fun you will ever have is being close to God and doing what He says to do when He says to do it. It may not be easy at times but He will take you on an adventure!
    - 2 Cor. 9:8

Notes:

- June is a month of relaxation and fun for many. However, it's important to remember to set aside time for rest and reflection.
- Summer provides opportunities for personal growth and ministry.
- Engaging in activities that promote community and faith can be beneficial for the mind and soul.
- It's crucial to balance leisure with responsibilities and commitments.
- Always seek to make the best of your summer season, whether through school reflections, personal growth, or ministry opportunities.
