You may not be perfect, but did you do your best to be in right in your relationship with the Lord, your teachers, and your friends this year? If not, go make things right before school lets out.

Acts 24:16 1

Perhaps the school year had some hard times early on. It doesn't have to end this way! Finish strong in your work. Leave a legacy of love behind to your friends. Have a thankful spirit with your teachers.

Ecclesiastes 7:1 2

The girls that have chosen the path of selfish living away from God may seem cool now, but their lives do not leave a legacy that will last. Proverbs says that the memory of the righteous will be blessed!

Proverbs 10:7 3

Do you have a good reputation within your school and community aside from being at church? The Lord wants to raise you up as a leader to represent Him. He will help you as you live for Him everywhere you go!

1 Timothy 3:7 4

Week 1: Your Legacy

Have you ever been under someone's leadership that wasn't easy to follow? Whether it's a teacher, coach, or parent, honor those that are over you. If there is abuse, then get outside help. But otherwise, honor your leader as unto the Lord.

Romans 13:1-7 6

Imagine that you are babysitting. One child is kind and obedient, but the other child is rude and wild. Which one brings you joy to lead? Be like that as a teen to your leaders. Be the one that leaders enjoy!

Hebrews 13:17 7

Your youth leaders at church are truly special people. Think about how they could be other places like other adults are but instead they chose to be with you. Honor your youth leaders with a text or card of gratitude.

1 Timothy 5:17 8

When you honor your school leaders, you are honoring God. When you read verses like this one listed in 1 Peter, you learn that there are institutions set up by God over people. This is a gift! Thank your teachers before school lets out.

1 Peter 2:13-14 9

How is your relationship going with your parents? They may not be perfect, but they are trying hard to keep the family going. Show them some daughter-love today. Whatever would bless your parents, do it.

Ephesians 6:1-2 10

The Bible says to show respect to older men and to treat younger men as brothers. It goes on to say to show honor to older women as if she were a mother, and to younger women as a sister. What changes can you make when you are around others?

1 Timothy 5:1-2 11

Week 2: Honoring Leadership

Have you told your teachers or friends about what God has done in your life? If not, now is the time! It doesn't have to be weird or awkward. Simply share His goodness to you as you talk about normal life.

Isaiah 12:4 13

You may be willing to go around the world to share the good news of God but are you willing to go into your own town? Start now with your school, foster kids in town, or sick people in nursing homes and hospitals. God is sending you already.

Isaiah 6:8 14

Be bold when it comes to sharing why you do what you do. If you are serving in ministry, then share about it. Invite others to join too! What you are doing is shining your light for others to see.

Matthew 5:16-17 15

Do others know that you love Jesus? Have you been proud of your relationship with Him or are you hidden? How you claim Christ is how He will claim you. Are you public or private? Let others know unashamedly about your faith.

Luke 12:8 16

It may sound challenging to "go into all the world and make disciples" but it doesn't have to be. Think of the people already around you that need to grow in their knowledge of the Bible. Start with siblings and friends.

Matthew 28:19-20 17

Have you ever felt nervous about what you would say if you shared Christ in class or with friends? Don't worry! The Lord says that the Holy Spirit will go with you and tell you what to say. Listen closely and follow His lead!

Luke 12:11-12 18

Week 3: Reaching Your Friends

You are SO close to being finished with school! It's an exciting time. In the midst of the end of year parties or field trips, don't forget to keep your focus on your schoolwork until the end.

You can do it!
Proverbs 4:25 20

Don't do it for your teachers or your parents...do all things for the Lord! In your final days of school, finish strong as you do your schoolwork for Him. Learning is a blessing! He has given you the gift of education.

Colossians 3:23 21

Nervous about an end-of-year project? Commit it to the Lord. He wants to help you and bless you. He will give you ideas, time, favor with your teacher, and energy to do all you need to do.

Proverbs 16:3 22

When you are studying for finals, don't stress! God is faithful when you are weary. God is your strength when you are overwhelmed. God knows all and will help you. Don't think about your own abilities, rely on Him.

Romans 8:5 23

All around you at school there are issues. Even if you are homeschooled there are most likely issues at co-op or extracurricular activities. Avoid the drama and think about what you should be thinking about as the year ends.

Philippians 4:8 24

School is a blessing to you but the wisdom and knowledge that comes from the Word is even more of a gift! As you wrap up school, passionately pursue God throughout the summer.

Proverbs 2:2-5 25

Week 4: Final Days of Focus

You may not know what your summer will be like, but you can know what God asks of you. He says to make the most of your time. Ask Him what He wants you to accomplish over the next couple of months.

Ephesians 5:15-17 27

School is out, and you are free to do whatever you want! Well, maybe not. Just because there is a not a schedule for school that doesn't mean there aren't boundaries in how you spend your time. Be wise!

Ephesians 5:15-17 28

Summer offers more opportunities for you to experience a job, travel, free time, camps, and family memories. The Bible says to "make the most of every opportunity!" Look for ways to share the Lord all throughout your summer.

Ephesians 5:15-17 29

Your friends will come back to school in the fall either more like Jesus or less like Jesus. Which will you be? Make time for personal growth and for gatherings at church to grow in God.

Ephesians 5:15-17 30

As school ends, what do you think you were known for this year? What do others think of when they think of you? If you have a Godly reputation and favor with people, then you have left a legacy worth more than gold!

Proverbs 22:1 31

Week 5: Summer Preparations
