Is there someone you had a disagreement with that needs to hear from you? Take time to make it right before summer begins!

Matthew 5:23-24 1

Summer Celebrations: School Reflections

Because Emily is an overachiever, summer is a time for her to get ahead on her life goals. But first, she needs to take a break from her schedule. Rest is important too!

Exodus 20:8-10 3

Even though life isn't super busy, Heath felt like he was always tired. He realized that he was spending a ton of time on his phone, which left him feeling drained.

Proverbs 25:28 4

Elise added the new fitness app to her device. After a week of logging info, she realized that she only slept an average of 6 hours a night. She needed more sleep!

Psalm 4:8 5

If you ever feel guilty when you aren't making progress, think again. Taking time to restore your body is progress! Rest when you need it. It will move you forward.

Genesis 2:2-3 6

Tasha had the habit of staying up until midnight or beyond and then sleeping in until noon on summer days. That can be fun every now and then but not as a life pattern.

Ephesians 5:15 7

Candice was weary of all the noises in her life. Siblings, music, movies, and text messages all meshed into a massive mound in her mind. She decided to unplug!

Mark 6:31 8

Summer Celebrations: Rest

Do you find you have lots of spare time now that school has ended? Use this time to try a new activity! You may find something you love.

Ecclesiastes 3:1 10

Kenzie thrived on hanging out with her friends during the school year. Now that it's summer, she feels lost because they all have their own activities. Now what?

Philippians 2:4 11

Tate was hesitant to volunteer for leading at kids camp. But afterwards, she realized that she LOVED leading and hanging out with kids! Tate was glad she stepped out.

Matthew 5:16 12

Does your summer schedule build or restrain progress in your walk with Jesus? This is the perfect time to reevaluate your priorities.

1 Corinthians 10:31 13

Julie knew that during her busy school year she had often neglected her Bible and youth group. Now, she wonders if God will forgive her and offer her a second chance.

Romans 3:23-24 14

Learning is not just limited to school but is truly a lifestyle! Choose to learn new things even during the summer. Find a course or class that you'd enjoy and go for it!

Colossians 3:10 15

Summer Celebrations: Growth

Jen was saving up for new shoes, but she knew her unsaved friend Hannah couldn't afford the church camp Jen was attending. What should Jen do with her money?

Luke 6:38 17

Do you remember looking up to an older girl when you were young? Young girls look up to you now. Consider becoming a mentor or "buddy" to someone over the summer!

Proverbs 27:17 18

Natalie's brother was upset that he was too young for camp, so she put together a "Backyard Camp" for him and his friends at her house! Natalie showed Christ's love.

Luke 6:31 19

One day you may need to lead a family, work fulltime, or raise children. Now is the time to embrace mission trips. Check out your church for opportunities!

John 12:26 20

Kara had some extra time, so she decided to get out of the house and go make a difference in her world. She babysat for free just to be a blessing to her pastors!

1 Thess. 5:12,13 21

Annie was too afraid to go to youth camp, but she took a big step of faith and signed up anyway. Now she is trusting that God will give her peace and joy the whole week.

1 Peter 5:7 22

Summer Celebrations: Ministry

God may be big, powerful, and eternal but He also enjoys fun! God is a God of blessings. Thank Him for the summer when you are having a good time!

James 1:17 24

Taylor's summer was set. Both her parents would be working so she would go to summer school then babysit her siblings. But she made the choice to enjoy it!

Romans 15:13 25

Looking for fun? Gather a few younger girls and have a Bible Study! Pick a theme, have the girls bring snacks, start with a game, and lead them closer to Jesus.

Philemon 1:7 26

Tia wanted to have some fun this summer. Sadly, she chose to join in on social media that wasn't God-honoring. It didn't take long to realize it stole her peace and joy.

Romans 6:23 27

Ever since Bailey became a teen, she spent more time with her friends than with her parents. She decided to plan some family nights! She spent time having fun with them.

Ephesians 6:2 28

The most fun you will ever have is being close to God and doing what He says to do when He says to do it. It may not be easy at times, but He will take you on an adventure!

2 Cor. 9:8 29
