What if you had never heard that God loves you? That would be unbearable. But God does love you! What a relief! Write "Thanks for loving me, God!" in your Bible next to today's verse.
1 John 4:9,10

2
Everything is affected because of God's love for you. He isn't mad at you. He is looking for opportunities to show you His love! Look for a new blessing to come your way!
Psalms 31:19

Love Is...

4
God's love will protect you! No hardship can overtake you. He will give you strength to face all challenges. Underline and place a heart next to this verse in your Bible.
John 16:33

5
Nothing can take away the love God has for you. You can't run, hide or escape from it. Even in your sin, He loves you. Think of your favorite hiding place and remember He is there too!
Romans 8:38-39

6
Friends, teachers, pastors, and even family may not love you. But God loves you, so it's okay if others don't. Your value is in the love from God not whether certain people love you.
1 John 3:1

7
Loving is different than liking. How is love different from things you "like"? Count how often you use the word "love" for things you simply "like" over the next few days.
1 John 3:16

8
Love is more than emotions. Around Valentine's Day, it can appear that true love is a feeling when you like someone. But love is not simply based on emotions. Check out what love really is in 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

9
Love is patient and kind. So, do you love in your everyday life? Can you say you love your siblings in this way? Parents? Friends? If not, start today! God will help you love them!
Memorize 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Love Is...

11
Love is excited about what is good, it trusts, and it protects. When others think of the love you give, would they say that you love with these qualities? Why or why not?
Memorize 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

12
Love holds on to hope and perseveres. Have you given up on someone because they hurt you? Love them even if it hurts. By God's grace, you can show them the love of Christ.
Memorize 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

13
Love is not envious. Instead of wanting what someone else has, love them. Compliment someone today that you are typically envious of.
Memorize 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

14
Love is not prideful. Out of your love for others, let others talk about themselves. People will immediately feel the love! Find someone today to listen to and learn more about their life.
Memorize 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

15
Love is not self-seeking. There will be times you feel there is a war going on in your mind and heart. It is a battle of choosing between doing what you want and doing what is best for others.
Memorize 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

16
Love is not easily angered. People can be hard to be around sometimes. How do you handle those moments? When tempted with anger, take a deep breath and remember to love.
Memorize 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Love Is...

18
Love is not focused on remembering the faults of others. Show mercy and forgiveness today by letting things go. Pray for someone today that you have been angry with.
Memorize 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

19
God's love is unfailing. People will fail you. You may fail yourself. But God never fails. His love is always there and never will let you down. Even when things don't go well, you can trust Him.
Psalms 52:8

20
God's love is constant. Friends, school, houses, your body and your family may change but God's love never changes. His love is always consistent. Sing a worship song of thanks today.
Hebrews 13:8

21
God's love is sacrificial. He loves you so much that He willingly gave His life for you out of love. Because of His love, you can love. Do something sacrificial for someone today.
John 13:34

22
God's love is a gift. You can't earn it. You can't lose it. It is a forever gift for you! Keep that in your mind and heart today. He has complete love for you no matter what you do.

23
God's love needs a response. How will you respond? If you accept His love, it becomes alive in you and will be your confidence. Write God a letter thanking Him for His love for you.
2 Corinthians 5:14

Love Is...

25
God's love is meant to be shared. Once you have God's love, give it away to others! You have been told about the greatest love there is. Look for someone to talk about God with.
John 1:40-42

26
Your love to others doesn't have to run out. You may feel that loving others is extremely difficult at times, but because God's love is endless, your strength to love never runs out.
Psalms 36:5,6

Your love to others changes the world. When you love God and love others, you are changing the world. Love is powerful and makes a difference everywhere you go.
Matthew 22:37-39

28
Loving others sets you apart. Are you different than those around you? When you love people, you are a light standing out in a dark world. Choose to be different! LOVE!
John 13:35
