Every single one of you is a minister whether you know it or not. It could be standard behind the pulpit, in the doctor's office. Whatever it is God has called you to be; you also have a responsibility to minister to those around you.
Mark 16:15 2

Every person can use an uplifting word and it is your responsibility to pass that out to everyone you see. When people meet someone who is constantly encouraging they know something is different and you get to point to Christ.
1 Thessalonians 5:11 3

Prayer is powerful and it changes lives. You have a responsibility to pray for those who need it!
James 5:16 4

Jesus is the ultimate role model and part of our responsibility is to try to be like Him. Jesus spent time to serve His people and you need to follow in His footsteps.
John 13:5 5

We are the church! You can't minister to the whole world on your own, you need to come alongside God's people and begin your movement.
1 Corinthians 12:14 6

People were created to come together and do life together. Bring people with you and do life with them!
1 Corinthians 1:10 7

Accept Personal RESPONSIBILITY

The apostle Paul was so deliberate to find common interests and common understanding and that is exactly what you need to be doing. Find things that you can understand and make natural conversation about.
Acts 17:23 9

God is trustworthy and we need to be the same. People will be more open with you and will be capable of giving you more of an open mind once they feel like they can trust you.
Psalms 9:10 10

Respect is huge when it comes to relationships. No one will continue hanging around someone that is mean to them. Treat people how you want to be treated.
Philippians 2:3 11

People yearn for relationship and constantly desire to be with people and to feel like people want to be with them. The best way to make someone feel like you have a desire to be with them is to show interest in them by asking about them.
James 1:19 12

Devote time to pray for people. God hears you when you cry out to Him. Take full advantage of that and when you see/know someone in need, pray for them and seek God for them.
Job 22:27 13

Be patient with people. People take time and sometimes the best way to build a healthy relationship with someone is to simply be patient with them and give them time.
Ephesians 4:2-3 14

Build a Personal RELATIONSHIP

Everyone has hardships and everyone goes through rough seasons. Every bad thing you have gone through can bring you closer to Christ and you can use that to lift others spirits as well.
James 1:2-4 16

There are going to be people who just simply need an encouraging word and you can give that to them by telling them the amazing things God has done in/through your life!
2 Corinthians 2:14 17

Family is a very common place to be able to converse with those around you. Everyone came from something/someone and digging that up and talking about it is a great way to get to know someone.
Psalms 127:3 18

Everyone has things they are insecure about and things that make them a little nervous. God knows this and yet He chooses to look beyond it at what is inside us. This is so encouraging and something you can encourage someone else with.
1 Samuel 16:7 19

Every gift you have is from the Lord and He deserves to be glorified for His handiwork. Rejoice in what He has given you and share it with others.
James 1:17 20

Have this kind of passion when it comes to sharing your testimony. It very obviously can and will change lives if you allow it.
Psalms 71:15-18 21

Share Your Personal STORY

Invite them to church. We are the church and when we all come together to run our race we become even stronger. Make others strong alongside you.
Hebrews 12:1 23

Make people apart of your life. Bring them with you when you are with your community whether that be in a life group, club group, study group, etc. bring people along with you so they can become stronger with you.
1 Peter 4:9 24

You need to be studying and knowing God's word and you need to be helping others do the same thing. God very clearly shows us how important this book is, and it is your job to share it with others.
Joshua 1:8 25

We are meant to imitate our role models so why not take advantage of the wonderful people God placed in our lives and share them with those we are trying to minister to. If you learned so much from them don't you think others can too?
Ephesians 1:7 26

Meeting together is a very common topic within the bible. That goes to show how important it is and how much you need to implement it in not only your life but those around you.
Hebrews 10:24-25 27

Prayer is powerful and prayer with a group is even more so. Don't live your life simply praying for people at a distance, but constantly be praying WITH people!
Matthew 18:20 28

Give a Personal INVITATION

Your everyday life needs to consist of you sharing Christ with others and you do that by accepting your personal responsibility, building a personal relationship, sharing your personal story, and giving a personal invitation at every available moment!
1 Corinthians 15:58 30
